Henry (Hank) Rohl, of Calgary, working in conjunction with other promoters, is staging shows, commencing this week, Coleman date being Monday next, with Kimberley on Tuesday. Hec Trudeau, of Vancouver, and Wildcat Johnson, of Dallas, Texas, are the headliners of Monday's show, with Darby Melnick, of Detroit, and Don Ferguson, of Hamilton, in the semi-final. Matches are billed for eight rounds in the main event and six in the semi-final. Frank Barrington, prominent in many good programs in the past few years, is local manager and promoter for the circuit. It is planned to continue the events every two weeks throughout the winter in Coleman community hall.

FARMER-CREDITOR ACT IN OPERATION

The new Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act is now in operation. The official receiver, John L. Fawcett, of Macleod, is now in a position to act and will give all information as he may be able and receive applications and proposals under the Act.
Under this Act, the official receiver occupies a dual capacity—one as assignee, trustee and custodian in bankruptcy; the other in the capacity of advising with the farmer, getting a meeting with the creditors and trying to find some solution of the financial difficulties and arrange a working compromise, etc., if possible. If no working compromise is possible, either the farmer or any creditor has a right to ask for a review of the farmer's situation by the Board of Review, and that board has power to compromise, wipe out, extend or otherwise arrange debts. The former capacity is for the use of such as have found themselves hopelessly involved in debt and wish to try a new start; the latter for those who think they have some reasonable chance, etc., and wish to make a new arrangement. All the services are without charge. It is the intention that in some cases a loan from the Farm Loan Board may be obtained, but a yet that part of the programme is not fully worked out; but it is hoped that a little more definite information will be available soon. In the event of the settlements wishing the official receiver to hold a meeting explaining the working of the Act, the same can be arranged. The meeting will be quite informal, just a matter of talking over the intention of the Department and explaining the idea and manner of procedure.

NEW METHODS OF INTRODUCTION AT ALBERTA UNIVERSITY

Edmonton.—University of Alberta embarked on its 27th annual year as provincial center of higher education here, September 24th. A greater part of the first week was spent in fulfilment of registration and enrolment regulations. Figures released by the registrar's office reveal that enrolment of undergraduates will approximate that of the 1933-34 term when over 1300 students were enrolled.

Freshmen students, who registered for their first taste of college life this term, are being treated with rare consideration. Due to abolishment of all forms of hazing and initiation last year, students' union officials were this year faced with the problem of finding a new method of introducing newcomers, both to each other and the University.

For the past two weeks both freshmen and freshmen have been feted and entertained by campus organizations. Following a tour of points of interest in university buildings, first year class gathered in Convocation Hall on September 26th to hear an address by Dr. R. C. Wallace, president of the University. Round of affairs reached a climax Saturday, September 29th, when the freshman class toured the city as guests of the University Alumni, attended an exhibition Canadian football game staged in their honor, and were guests of the Students' Council at an informal dance in the evening.

One of the most thrilling features of American college life, an athletic pep rally, was introduced to the U. of A. Friday evening, September 28th. New university cheer song was featured in a rousing program of cheers, yells and pep talks.

Members of the senior football team, who staged an exhibition game Saturday for the benefit of freshmen students, were introduced to an audience of 500 applauding students. The rally, part of which was broadcast, will probably be repeated on the eve of major athletic events at the University.

VICTORY BOND CONVERSION HELPS BUSINESS RECOVERY

Ottawa, October 3.—The Prime Minister's frank and concise statement regarding the 1934 Refunding Loan has met with warm and encouraging response from bankers, insurance and trust company executives, business men, professional men, agriculturists and labor leaders throughout the country. The concrete evidence of business recovery from the low point of last year, which Mr. Bennett stressed in his opening announcement, such as a 56% increase in industrial production, 17% increase in employment, 43% increase in farm product prices as well as a substantial improvement in carloadings, electric power production and wholesale prices, emphasizes the strengthening of the national credit, the progress in achievement of national economy and the steady general upturn in business.

Completion of this year's refunding programme will bring the total war loan re-financing (inaugurated in 1931) to over $1,000,000,000. $9,000,000 per annum has already been saved in interest charges, and when this year's operations are concluded, the annual saving in interest will be about $14,000,000. This saving more than offsets interest charges on debt incurred to meet the extraordinary burdens incident to unemployment relief; and eventually should enable the government to reduce taxes.

The tenor of the comments from bankers, insurance and trust company executives, industrialists, agriculturists and labor leaders is ably summed up by the unanimity of their opinions, which are that Canada has emerged from the depression with probably less strain than that experienced in many other countries; and that, while the process is gradual, it is well founded. There have been no disturbing recessions consequent upon too rapid a rise.

The consensus of opinion is that by reason of the favorable basis of conversion and that attractive yield offered (particularly in the long term bonds), the majority of 1919 Victory bond holders will convert, and new investors hasten to secure an allotment of the new bonds.

MAIL ORDER HOUSE DISCLOSED

Any home merchant who neglects to tell the public about his wares should read this startling statement, made by a manager of a big Toronto mail order house recently: "We have a bureau, whose duty is to read each week the country newspaper. There is not a paper of any consequence in our trade territory we do not get. The bureau looks over these papers, and when we find a town where the merchants do not advertise in the local paper, or where advertisers do not change their advertisements regularly, we immediately flood that section with our literature. It always brings results far in excess of the same effort put forth in the territory where the local merchants use their local paper."

The Misses Gilroy have opened up a home-baking store in the premises just vacated by T. J. Murphy's barber shop. Mr. Murphy has moved his tonorial equipment into the pool hall, formerly operated by D. Lewis, which he has had very nicely renovated and is now running.

A. B. D. Campbell, district traveling passenger agent for the C.P.R., is here from Calgary today conferring with the different musical organizations in connection with again running a special train to the Blairmore musical festival, the dates of which are October 25th, 26th and 27th.—Cranbrook Courier.

It was a Bureau of Student Publicity feature and was arranged by Edward McCormick, Bureau Director.

Little Journeys In Science

CARBON MONOXIDE

(By Gordon H. Guest, M.A.)

Frequently we read of accidents caused by the escape of carbon monoxide gas from the exhaust of motor engines or from furnace pipes. Produced by the burning of carbon, in coal gas, and in motor exhausts, this gas, which is also known as carbonic oxide, is very poisonous, and is doubly dangerous because it has almost no odor, and overcomes victims so quickly that they rarely have time to escape from the fumes.

The deadliness of the gas lies in its action on the blood, where it displaces the oxygen in the haemoglobin through which it reaches the body tissues. It is identified in the body because of the bright red color which it gives to the blood.

It is estimated that one volume of carbon monoxide in eight hundred volumes of air is fatal when breathed for half an hour, while much smaller quantities are known to produce unpleasant effects if inhaled for any length of time. Small cars travelling at fifteen miles per hour are said to give off forty-one cubic feet of carbon monoxide per hour, while a large car gives off one hundred and eighty-four cubic feet of the gas in one hour. Thus, in large cities the air continually contains small amounts of the gas, and considerable attention has been given in some centres to purifying the air, particularly in tunnels and underground railways. This is done by passing the air over a substance known as hopcalite, which changes carbon monoxide into harmless carbon dioxide.

Mice and birds are particularly sensitive to carbon monoxide and sometimes rescue crews in mines take canaries in cages with them into the mines following an explosion in which this gas is believed to have been released.

"What is a molecule?" asked the teacher.

"A molecule," said John, "is something so small that it can't be seen, even through a microscope."

Russia A Powerful Factor

Much Safer To Have Nation Member Of League

Russia has been admitted to the League of Nations. Any other country would have been incredible, granted Russia's willingness to come in.

The League of Nations is an agency—fairly, perhaps, but the most effective in existence to-day—for the preservation of peace in the world. Whatever we may think of the Soviet theories of government, and their practice, the fact remains that Russia is one of the great nations, her policies and ambitions a powerful factor in world affairs. Obviously, therefore, it is much safer to have Russia on the inside with Britain and France and all those associated with them, than on the outside with Germany and Japan and the United States as critical observers.

Those who would have excluded Russia from this free assembly of the nations think of the League as a sort of secret society for a few of the elect. That view is utterly and fantastically absurd. If Russia is a menace to world peace through her plan of government, there is all the more reason for subjecting her to the presumably pacifying influences of League membership.—Ottawa Journal.

Young Law Offenders

Church Of England Synod Urges Action By Parliament

Canada should segregate her youthful criminal offenders during both trial and prison terms, the synod of the Church of England decided.

On motion of Magistrate J. E. Jones, Toronto, a resolution was passed urging the parliament of Canada to provide separate trials for boys between 16 and 21 years of age and separate penal institutions, similar to the Borstal system in England, where possible.

Most Rev. J. C. Roper, archbishop of Ottawa, seconded the resolution and undertook to bring the matter before the government.

Up to the age of 16, Magistrate Jones explained, the juvenile courts were available, but between that age and 21 there was no special provision. He pointed out the dangers to young offenders of contamination with older and more hardened criminals.

The synod also approved another resolution by Mr. Jones, urging provincial governments to implement Dominion government legislation respecting probation where it had not already been done.

It was certainly the younger offenders to whom attention should be directed, said Rev. A. Sovereign, bishop of Athabasca. "There are few grey-haired men in our penitentiaries now," he declared. "They are boys, many of them about 18 years old."

The Nazi flag of Germany is prohibited in the province of Buenos Aires by presidential decree.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OCTOBER 7

FELLOWSHIP WITH CHRIST

Golden Text: Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide in me. John 15:4.

Lesson: John 15.

Devotional Reading: Matthew 4: 18-20.

Explanations And Comments

Fellowship with Christ and Fruitage thereof. "Abide in me and I in you." Abide occurs some sixteen times in John's Gospel. "Abiding in Christ is something more than basking in Christ." (Homer Bushnell).

You can bear fruit only by abiding in me: In and through you I will live henceforth, in Jesus' promise. How can one abide in Christ; amid the duties and pleasures of life, amid one's mind always fixed upon him? "You are in a life until you step out of it, though you may not think of it." "You are in a life until you turn right or left, although, engrossed in the work with your friend, you do not think of the road. You are in Christ amid the pressure of daily life, in the heart of business, as long as your face is toward the Lord, your attitude that of humble submission, and your conscience void of offense." (F. B. Meyer).

"Apart from me ye can do nothing."

One who abides not in Christ is cast forth as a useless branch, and in the vineyards such cast-off branches are gathered and burned. "The thought is not to be so pressed as raise the question of the loss of souls who are united with Christ. We are concerned here with service rather than salvation. The words, however, are not without serious implications as to the absolute necessity of a real and continuous union with Christ." (Charles R. Swann).

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye have much fruit. "To glorify God" means to recognize and acknowledge his true character. The Father is the Husbandman: much fruit testifies to his skill and care. "And so shall ye be my disciples." "Abide in me, even as the Father hath loved me, I have loved you." And then Jesus reminded them that it was only through obedience to his commandments that they could do so, and further encouraged them in obedience by adding that he had remained in his Father's love by keeping his Father's commandments.

A society has been formed to hoist a Japanese national flag, which, it is claimed, will be the largest in the world, on the summit of Fujiyama, the sacred mountain of Japan. The flag will be 90 feet long and 50 feet wide, and when hoisted, will be visible from a great distance.

Recipes For This Week

(By Betty Barclay)

CHOCOLATE NUT CAKE

1/2 cup butter or butter substitute
2 cups sugar
4 eggs
1 cup mashed potatoes
2 squares chocolate
2 cups flour
3/4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon mace
1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
1 cup chopped Brazil nuts
1/2 cup milk

Cream the butter or butter substitute and one cup of sugar. In another bowl, beat the egg-yolks with the remaining cup of sugar. Combine the two mixtures. Have ready the hot mashed potatoes, which should be without lumps, add to them the melted chocolate and combine with the first mixture. Mix and stiff the dry ingredients and add the nut meats. Add to the cake mixture, alternating with the milk. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Bake in a loaf pan in a moderate oven. When cool, cover with marshmallow frosting or boiled frosting. This is a large moist cake, which will keep well.

ORANGE MILK FOAM

(Serves 1)

6 tablespoons orange juice
6 tablespoons evaporated milk
6 tablespoons cold water
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon grated orange rind

Beat or shake thoroughly. Serve at once in a large glass, chilling with ice if desired. Fresh milk may be used in place of evaporated milk.

This is an excellent mid-meal drink for children who are undernourished. It is also a good beverage accompaniment for meals. Evaporated milk makes the drink very economical.

Decline Of Manners

Impoliteness And Rudeness Considered Smart By Some People

The decline of manners has become clearly marked during the past few years and is by no means confined to the one sex. Ordinary politeness and civility have departed from the masses and their exercise is, apparently, something to be forgotten rather than promoted. It is now regarded in many quarters as the smart thing to be impolite and rude, and the influence of the home and the school, which has fallen down in so many other things, is equally negligible in this regard.—Brooklyn Recorder and Times.

THEN AND NOW

Fifteen years ago Canada engaged in floating one of the most successful of its war loans. National enthusiasm was at its highest pitch. Business was booming and money was plentiful. Results exceeded the fondest hopes, nearly 800,000 citizens subscribing for the 1919 Victory Loan bonds. True, the income yield of 5% per cent was very attractive, but opinion then was, that people subscribed more from their wholehearted desire to assist national reconstruction, rather than because of the attractive rate of interest.

Holders of these 1919 Victory bonds, which will mature November 1st, are now being asked to convert them into bonds of the 1934 Refunding Loan. That the majority of holders of 1919 Victory bonds will avail themselves of this privilege there can be no doubt. They know what a safe and profitable investment they have had and will surely wish to continue it. The record of Dominion of Canada bonds during the past few years, when investors have suffered loss of capital and distress of mind, demonstrates conclusively that there is a safer investment than Dominion of Canada bonds. Security of principal is paramount in any investment. Consequently, when the unassailable security of Dominion of Canada bonds is coupled with so desirable an income yield as is offered by the new bonds, the response from those having bonds to convert, as well as applications from new investors, should be both prompt and enthusiastic.

BRITANNIA RULES WAVES,
AMERICA WAIVES RULES

Newport, R.I., Sept. 24.—Britannia rules the waves, but America waives the rules.

That was the tart comment of Bill Corum, New York Evening Journal, after the supervising committee for the America's Cup races last night disallowed T. O. M. Sopwith's claim of foul by the United States defender, Harold S. Vanderbilt's "Rainbow," in Saturday's heat.

In the despatch he sent his paper, Corum added:

"It is ironic that Vanderbilt should have escaped penalty for violation of the rules because the committee, under the rules, had to insist that Sopwith had not complied with the rules; but it is hard to see how they could have acted otherwise."

J. J. Herbert Duckworth, London correspondent, wrote:

"It is a great pity these matches should have been spoiled by ill-feeling that is certain to be shown in some circles on both the British and American sides by the protest."

"Without knowledge of all that transpired at the meeting of the race committee, it is hardly fair to criticize the verdict."

"However, it does seem rather strange that it should have taken so many hours to decide whether or not Sopwith put up his protest flag early enough to conform with the racing rules."

Log Marsh, sports editor of the Toronto Daily Star, wrote:

"The real answer is that 'Endeavour' is the better boat. It smells even worse than that. Gar Wood—Kaye Don thing in the Harmsworth trophy races at Detroit three years ago—the one where it is alleged Wood deliberately enticed Don and Miss England III. across the line and beat a boat which had already whipped Miss America on a technicality."

Dan O'Rourke, Alberta and British Columbia drummer for the Independent Biscuit Company, of Edmonton, was in town during the week, proceeding Wednesday to points west to Vancouver, Victoria, Prince Rupert, and back to the Alberta capital. Mr. O'Rourke reports a decided tendency to a return to at least normal business.

On and after January 1st, 1935, any person found to be in possession of a pistol or revolver, when its ownership has not been recorded with the police authorities, will be liable to a fine of $50 or thirty days in jail, or both. This amendment to the criminal code was passed at the last session of parliament, and is being proclaimed in the Canada Gazette.

J. A. McDonald, proprietor of the Empire hotel at Coleman, together with his wife and couple of children and Mrs. T. B. Smith, while returning from Calgary last week end, had a very narrow escape from death when their car turned over into a ditch near Nanton and caught fire. Fortunately, several cars arrived on the scene in time to extricate the trapped occupants. The accident was caused through a tire blowout.

The most unfair piece of legislation is that which places the onus on an hotel man to know as to whether or not his customer is six months over or six months under twenty-one years of age. There isn't a living R. E. Shocks committee.

A WORD IN SUPPORT OF LEGITIMATE ADVERTISING

There are a great many merchants who want to get the maximum of publicity concerning their products, who evidently have not studied the subject very carefully. Included among these are the merchants who resort to the use of circulars that are thrown into yards, stuffed behind door-knobs, tossed into automobiles and crammed under windshield wipers.

"Wide-awake municipal officers see to it that the public is protected against this nuisance which clutters up yards and streets and automobiles and damages windshield wipers. Incidentally, they are protecting the unwise merchants who resort to this sort of advertising from the indignation and wrath of prospective customers, who, in no small number of instances, declare a boycott on business men who are responsible for their inconvenience or the expense they are put to because of circular distribution.

But there is an economic side to it which these circular-users overlook. It will cost them little more, if any, to put their advertisements in legitimate newspapers of general circulation—with the assurance that their messages will actually reach the prospective buyers. In the case of circulars, we venture that not more than ten per cent of the people for whom they are intended—if that large a percentage—actually read the circulars. In the first place, it is questionable whether 50 per cent of the circulars are distributed in such a way that the persons for whom they are intended really get them. But even those who find the circulars, especially the drivers of automobiles, in very many instances simply ball them up and throw them into the street. We've had men tell us that when they find circulars in their cars they simply throw them into the street. If the authorities will not protect us from having my car cluttered up in this way, one of them explained, I am going to register my opposition and indignation by being one to help clutter up the streets so as to draw attention to the outrageous imposition. "In these days, when carefully operated businesses seek to foster customer good will, and when there is little, if any, difference in the cost of circulars and legitimate newspaper advertising, it seems to be the height of folly for merchants to use circulars."—Ex.

DROUGHT AREA APPEALS FOR ASSISTANCE

Kincaid, Sask., Sept. 29, 1934.

Dear Reader: For the sixth successive year this district has experienced drought and, consequently, crop failure. Our minister of agriculture, Hon. J. G. Taggart, says this is the worst year since the drought commenced. Can you visualize what this means to people who have passed through these six years to meet each year with worn out farm machinery, with inadequate clothing and bedding, and with many things in the home in need of replacement? It has been a heart-breaking experience this past summer, after such a promising start to see the crops wither and burn up under the scorching July sun.

The outlook for the future seems dark, and unless rains come this fall what hope is there for a crop in 1935? Sloughs are drying up, wells are giving out and many farmers are hauling water for miles to keep their stock alive. But we are people who live in HOPE, and we hope to be able to carry on until better times come, for surely the drought cannot last much longer.

For the past five years I have been engaged in relief work, and during these years have received help from many parts of Canada, which I distributed to the needy people of this district. Last year much clothing, food and Christmas gifts to children were distributed; and were greatly appreciated by those who received them.

We are again glancing to carry on our work. We shall not soon forget all that the kind people of Canada have done for us during the past five years, and it is this generous help which we have received in the past that makes me confident to make this further appeal.

It is impossible for me to describe the condition of many people in the drought area, but the least that can be said is that the condition is a most desperate one, and it is through no fault of their own that the people are faced with such hard times.

Will you kindly remember our work in your prayers, and if it is possible for you to assist us with money, used clothing and Christmas gifts for children, will you kindly do so?

Thanking you in anticipation of your sympathy and help,

I remain, gratefully yours,
Rev. J. T. GAWTHROP,
Minister United Church.

WILL PROPOSE AMENDMENTS TO THE B. N. A. ACT

Ottawa.—The British North America Act, that aged document which at once binds together the provinces of Canada in one vast national unit, yet stands as a bulwark of protection of peculiar provincial rights, will be the bone of contention at a momentous conference in Ottawa, probably in November.

While the date of the conference is no nearer fixed than when Prime Minister R. B. Bennett sent out the call to the provincial premiers the first of this month, most of the provinces have signified their willingness to attend. Their consent or suggestion on the proposed amendments to the constitution have yet to be made but will probably be ready by the end of the month.

It is proposed to have the provinces yield to federal government control the exclusive jurisdiction with respect to social matters as unemployment insurance, hours of labor and minimum wages, certain forms of taxation, company laws and possibly trade regulations involving private property.

The British North America Act which brought the first three provinces into one Canadian confederation in 1867, made no provision for possible amendments. There have been amendments and the general practice has been to secure them by joint resolution of the senate and house of commons addressed to the Imperial parliament in London. On occasions they have been secured by the representations of the prime minister but that was many years ago.

It will be the objective of the forthcoming conference to secure approval of certain proposed amendments and also to secure a concerted action of the provinces and the Dominion, approval by the British parliament of a purely Canadian method of amending the constitution.

If the latter objective is achieved it will then be possible for the Canadian people, as represented by their members in parliament, to make whatever amendments circumstances dictate without further reference to London.

Aftermath Of Yacht Race

Newport, R.I.—Endeavour, the trim sloop which completed an unsuccessful but impressive bid against Rainbow for the America's cup, is not for sale.

Her owner, T. O. M. Sopwith, said emphatically, "I am not selling Endeavour," when he was advised of reports that a movement was afoot in Great Britain for a group of Canadian yachting enthusiasts to purchase the blue-bolted yacht and challenge the United States for the America's cup. Sopwith said there was no reason why he should sell the craft.

"She is going back to England inside of a fortnight," he added. "I'm going to race her next summer in England."

While Sopwith has flatly said he will never challenge again, there are many here who hold to the opinion a challenge would be forthcoming nevertheless.

The 1934 races, most turbulent in the history of the cup, continued to be the chief topic of conversation in yachting circles and there was an amazing agreement of opinion. The most salient points on which there was more or less accord was that the Endeavour was a faster boat than the Rainbow and that superior seamanship was the factor that enabled the United States boat to overtake and vanquish the Endeavour.

Those who argued Britain would again challenge for the cup held that Britons must have been encouraged by the fine showing of the Sopwith yacht.

Members of the Rainbow camp did not hesitate to admit they were extremely lucky in edging out the big blue invader.

Kidnapping Menace

Hon. Arthur Rook Addressed Conference In New York

New York.—Hon. Arthur Rook, attorney-general for Ontario, laid before law enforcement and crime prevention authorities of the United States, a plan designed to eradicate the growing menace of kidnapping for ransom.

The law's reply to challenges from kidnappers, he declared, should be "certainty of apprehension, and make the business unprofitable." This would be accomplished by making it illegal to pay a ransom and by welding all police authorities into a mobile unit which could be stretched out in any direction at sudden notice.

Mr. Rook, speaking at the New York Herald-Tribune's conference on current problems of 1934, emphasized his opposition to what he called centralization of police authority "and the reorganization of our civil officials on the basis of a standing army." But what he thought was required was "generalship; and generalship necessitates unified control."

There was no need for centralized management of all our forces, he said, but only centralized command of all resources in the hands of a unified criminal investigation department."

He told of his plans to submit at the next session of the Ontario legislature measures designed to widen authority of this branch of the Ontario Provincial Police.

He also told of his preparations to submit to the legislature a proposal which would "entrust the executive with power to supervise the bank accounts and other resources of relatives, friends and other persons while they are subject to the pressure of such illegal demands, and by so doing thus forcibly prevent payment of ransom."

Mr. Rook agreed such measures might prove hardship to relatives of a kidnapped victim but he expressed the conviction that if plotters knew in advance a ransom could not be paid, but only central command could be prevented by law authorities, "the relative would not have been kidnapped. It is not new that the state should ask individuals to bear hardship for the common good."

Wants To Keep Control

British Columbia Reluctant To Surrender New Wage Law

Victoria.—With what the considers higher wage standards and labor conditions in effect in British Columbia than in other parts of Canada, the province would be reluctant to surrender control over the minimum wage and labor regulations to the Dominion authority, Hon. G. S. Pearson, minister of labor, stated.

According to the estimate of Premier T. D. Pattullo, payroll in British Columbia have been increased $500,000 monthly by minimum wage scales put into effect in the province during the present year.

Mr. Pearson was speaking of the report that the Dominion might propose taking over control of wage scales, at the coming Dominion-provincial conference. The minister is in agreement with the idea of having wage legislation adopted throughout Canada but is opposed to the Dominion setting scales for this province. British Columbia is willing to discuss the matter of wages for the whole of Canada lower than those it feels are right, stated the minister.

He had been dead more than a month from natural causes.

REQUEST OF RUSSIA CAUSES STIR IN LEAGUE

Geneva.—Russia's surprise move to get the council of the League of Nations to strike a balance on disarmament apparently had stirred up a hornet's nest.

Because of the "dynamite" contained in Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff's request that the council obtain a report on whether the disarmament conference can be successfully resumed, efforts were made to induce him to withdraw it.

Statements in some quarters were known to be apprehensive lest a report from Arthur Henderson, president of the disarmament conference, might blame failure of the conference on Germany's withdrawal.

This, it was explained, inevitably would raise the question of the alleged re-arming of Germany in violation of the treaty of Versailles—a question some countries are desirous of avoiding.

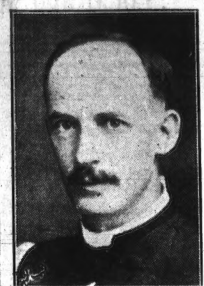

Litvinoff's proposal would throw the whole question of disarmament back into the lap of the league council, which then would be responsible for choosing the path leading to disarmament. The proposal was contained in a letter to Richard Sander, resident of the league assembly.

Handle Poultry And Eggs

Marketing Plan To Regulate Sale May Be Considered

Ottawa.—Submitted by Western livestock and poultry interests, the Dominion marketing board had under consideration a marketing scheme to regulate the sale of poultry and eggs from Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. A possibility exists the scheme for poultry may be adopted in time to handle the fall marketing.

Another scheme emanating from the west also is before the board.

Both schemes were presented by R. P. Roblin, president of the Saskatchewan Livestock Producers' Co-operative Association; G. H. Barr, Regina lawyer, and W. A. Landreth, Winnipeg, of the Canadian Poultry Pool.

Signs Amnesty Decree

King Victor Emmanuel Releases Many Short Term Prisoners

Rome.—King Victor Emmanuel celebrated the birth of his granddaughter, Maria Pia, by signing a decree of amnesty liberating all prisoners sentenced to two years or less in jail.

Although the amnesty does not apply to political offences and certain heinous crimes, it includes many military offences and will result in the release of many thousands of prisoners.

Not only that, the amnesty cuts two years off sentences of more than two years duration.

Held Conference Over Radio

London.—Over a world-wide wireless telephone network the Sydney, Johannesburg, Bombay, New York and London branches of a well known British engineering firm were linked up last week for purposes of a conference. The voices came over distinctly and the conference was voted a success.

Britain's Low Phone Rates

London.—Long-distance telephone rates announced for Britain, include some of the lowest rates in the world, said the post office. Large reductions are made in present rates. It will be possible to talk for three minutes in the evening between any two points in England, Scotland and Wales for a maximum of 25 cents.

Win Balloon Race

Believe Poland Has Swept Honors In Competition

Warsaw.—Poland, playing host to the 22nd annual Gordon Bennett balloon race, apparently had swept honors in that competition.

Official results will be delayed several days, it was announced, pending the arrival of the balloonists' landing books.

It was believed the Polish "Barysaw" (Warsaw), crewed by Z. Burzynski and J. Zakrzewski, which landed near Riazan, Russia, was the winner, having covered approximately 750 miles.

The third Polish balloon, the "Polonia", burst and fell into a lake some 200 miles north of Helsinki, Finland, and chances for third place were believed good.

All 16 that took flight have been reported safe.

LAUNCHING OF THE GIANT LINER "QUEEN MARY"

Clydebank, Glasgow, Scotland.—The queen christened the giant new Cunard-White Star liner 534 the "Queen Mary" as the great ship started down the ways to the water.

The Queen Mary, which it is believed will be the new queen of the seas, slid down successfully in a perfect launching.

The choice of the name of a living queen for a christening was most unusual. Right up until the moment of the actual christening, no one had announced what the great ship's name was to be and the suggestion "Britannia" ruled a favorite.

The launching followed a short speech by King George. The Prince of Wales was present besides a multitude of other notables.

After the welcoming speeches to the king and Queen His Majesty replied:

"I thank you for the loyal address of welcome to us. As a sailor, I have deep pleasure in coming here to watch the launching by the queen of this great and beautiful ship."

"The sea with her tempests will not readily be bridled. She is stronger than man, yet in recent times man has done much to make the struggle with her more equal."

"It is still less than 100 years since Samuel Cunard founded a service of mail, passenger and cargo ships for carrying mails across the Atlantic to America. Those first Cunard ships were of 1,150 tons. A few people now alive must have in their childhood have heard those ships spoken of with wonder as evidence of man's mastery over nature."

"Today we come to the happy task of sending on her way the stateliest ship now in being. I thank all those here and elsewhere whose efforts, however inconsiderable or humble, have helped to build her."

His Majesty remarked that for three years the uncompleted hull had lain on the stocks, until a government grant enabled resumption of the work.

"We know full well that misery a silent dockyard may spread among a seaport, and with what courage that misery may be endured," the king said. "During those years when work upon her was suspended, we grieved for what that suspension meant to thousands of our people."

"We rejoice that with the help of my government it has been possible to lift that cloud, and to complete this ship."

"Now, with hope of better trade on both sides of the Atlantic, let us look forward to her playing a great part in the revival of international commerce."

"It has been the nation's wish that she should be completed, and to-day we can send her forth, no longer a number on the books, but a ship with a name in the world, alive with beauty, energy and strength."

"Samuel Cunard built his ships to carry mail between two English-speaking countries. This one is built to carry the people of two lands, in great numbers, to and fro, so they may learn to understand each other."

"Both are faced with similar problems, and they prosper and suffer together. May she, in her career, bear many thousands of each race to visit each other as students and return as friends."

"We sent her to her element with the goodwill of all nations, as a mark of our hope in the future. She has been built in fellowship among our peoples. May her sunny days on great waters spread friendships among the nations."

BENNETT MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR WORLD PEACE

Paris.—Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, speaking at a banquet in his honor at the Inter-Allied Club here, made an impassioned plea for international peace and friendliness.

"When Canadians traversed the seas to maintain peace," he told the 150 diplomats and prominent Frenchmen gathered at the banquet, "they believed it would come again."

"Canadians know how earnestly France has striven for peace," he said. "In these days of rapid communications, the repercussions of what takes place in France to-day are felt in Canada tomorrow."

Pierre-Etienne Flandin, minister of public works in the Doumergue cabinet, proposed the Canadian premier's health and acknowledged Canada's hospitality at her recent Jacques Cartier quinquennial celebration. Flandin thanked the French delegation to the celebration.

Introduced by Hon. Philippe Roy, Canadian minister in Paris, the premier took occasion to make smiling reference to politics at home.

He said he hoped the guests would not consider him too great a man "as the by-election at home indicate I am not."

"Naturally when a government has not yielded to inflation it does not receive the plaudits of the people," the premier said. "But there are signs of improvement now."

"Owing to the gold mines and productivity of land and forests the Canadian dollar is worth more than the American one."

Desire New Conference

British Chamber Of Commerce Suggests Calling Imperial Meeting

London.—The British Chamber of Commerce unanimously passed a resolution urging the government to take opportunity of the King's silver jubilee to call an imperial conference. The first time in history, when leaders from the Dominions will be in London, to call another Imperial conference.

This conference could review the trade position in the light of the Imperial agreements signed at the Imperial economic conference in Ottawa in 1932, it was pointed out.

Figures showed that Britain's exports to the empire had topped her exports to foreign countries this year for the first time in history. Only a few days ago Ottawa reported an increase of Canadian trade with the rest of the empire more than accounted for her total increase over last year.

In the first eight months of the year British exports to empire countries increased by more than $60,000,000 over last year, or 14.2 per cent. Exports to foreign countries increased by $13,750,000, or 2.9 per cent.

The net effect was to bring the empire exports $3,315,000 higher than exports to foreign countries.

Boy Scout Campaign

Flea Is Made By Lord Beesborough For Increased Membership

Ottawa.—An earnest appeal for a campaign having for its object an increase in the number of Canadian Boy Scouts from 65,000 to 100,000 was made by Lord Beesborough, governor-general, here. Addressing the commissioners and provincial presidents of the Boy Scouts' Association at their banquet, Lord Beesborough, recalling that next year Canada would be visited by Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the movement, urged his hearers to welcome him with a membership vastly increased over its present numbers.

Hon. H. H. Stevens paid tribute to the splendid character of the men associated with scouting.

S. J. Latta of Saskatchewan was presented by His Excellency with the badge of the Silver Wolf during the evening.

Col. J. H. Woods, provincial president, Calgary, assured the governor-general his wishes for an increased membership in the Boy Scout movement would be accomplished.

Will Represent Canada

Ottawa.—Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, government leader in the senate and member of the cabinet without portfolio, will attend the centennial celebrations at Melbourne, Australia, next month, as representative of the Empire Parliamentary Association and of the Dominion government. He will mail from Vancouver on October 20.
